United Methodist Conference Set

One of the large events attracting members of the Methodist Church will be the District Conference at Centenary United Methodist Church in Lynchburg on Sunday, February 11, 1973, from 3:00 p.m. until 5:00 p.m.

The Rev. Jacob Mast, superintendent of the Lynchburg District is in charge of the program which will feature talks by Bishop Kenneth Goodson, resident bishop of the Richmond area, and Mrs. J. Boyd Tyrrell of New York, formerly of Roanoke, a leader in Methodism.

In his communication to his fifty or more ministers serving about 90 churches, Rev. Mast informed them that this must be the best and most exciting conference yet.

After a brief business session, the group will have the opportunity to meet Bishop Kenneth Goodson who was assigned to the Virginia Conference in July of 1972 after having served for 8 years as presiding bishop of the Birmingham, Alabama area.

Mrs. Tyrrell is a native of Verona, Pa., and received the master's degree in speech and drama from the university of Michigan at Ann Arbor.

As of January 1, 1973, the name of the Woman's Society of Christian Service and the Weselyn Women's Guild was changed to United Methodist Women. The name change brings about a reorganizational structure for the present and future work that Mrs. Tyrrell will bring out.

Each church in the district will have three delegates. mast announced that the chief project of the meetings will be the key '73 movement to "win the continent to Christ in 1973 by more than 150 demominations."

BLESSING OF HOUSES

nd found out that it could be urchased for $2,700. they ecided to buy this mobile ome and use it for temporary dditional space.

The trailer was completely epaired and remodeled. It ontains one larger room, 12 et by 30 feet, which is used s an educational and fellowhip room; one room, 12 feet by 12 feet, that is used as a permanent nursery"; a bath omplete with tub and shower; nd a nice kitchen.

The present church building is an attractive L-shaped uilding but for the past 23 odd ears that it has been located n Appomattox it has never ad hot water available anywhere in the church. Now with the new trailer the church embers can enjoy this luxury lus the fact that they now ave a kitchen available, too.

A goal set by the church embers is that anyone using he trailer, whether for working for teaching, for earning, or for playing, may e lead to our Lord.

St. Anne's Episcopal Church oes not have a Sunday School at they have, due to the lack f space, a Thursday School each week at 3:30 p.m. and pproximately 15 children are nvolved in this phase of the hurch work.

A mission church of the piscopal Diocese of Southern irginia, the Bishop is the Rte everend David S. Rose. Dr. hn A. Mathews is the Senior arden and Major W. W. allis is Junior Warden at St. nne's.

In the Episcopal Church here are two types of hurches: one being a Mission hurch and the other being a arish Church. St. Anne's is a ission Church, meaning that s not self supporting but is ided by the Diocese of outhern Virginia. This type of nancial support is not a ermanent thing but helps a hurch to get on its feet and ome able to carry its own.

Emmanuel Episcopal Church Buckingham County shares the Cure Mission and E. ergy Peoples is the Priest at his church, too.

An Inquirer's Class has been rganized at St. Anne's piscopal Church in Appomatox. This class leads to onfirmation for those who are nterested in being confirmed y the Bishop. At present here are thirteen members participating in this class.

As is often said "Appomatox is a growing town" and St. nne's Episcopal Church certainly appears to be growing right along with it.
